TOWNE TALKS
"Just for Fun"
 By RAS BERRY

They was a very interesting golf game up to Fates Verdes last wk. when Mr. W. Post and Mr. S. Levy played golf vs. one another. Mr. Levy was a golfer player is a very good clothing merchant and Mr. Post who is a banker is a very good golfer player. He gave Sam three and one half strokes per hole which means that in order to win the hole Mr. Post he had to beat Mr. Levy by four strokes and if he only beat him three strokes why Mr. Levy he won the hole.

The match was fast and furious for nine holes and Mr. Post he finally won by counting all the strokes Mr. Levy took which didn't accomplish nothing but fan the air.

Mr. Levy he says he can beat Mr. Post any day with a 3 1/2 stroke per hole handicap if Mr. Post will mind his own business and not watch his opponent so close.

The Rotary went to Ben Lingenfelter's church Sunday and when it was announced that they was going Ben gets up and says the subject of his sermon would be The Way Out—and that's what it was.

I tells Ben the other day that when I am in my back yard Sunday morning I can hear his sermons and Ben says well if that's so I'll send the deacons over with the collection plate.

So I says well I can't hear you quite that good.

Dick Flaherty he was a little late for church Sunday because he had to go back down town to get change for a quarter.

Everybody better watch out for I see Bill Main getting his motorcycle oiled up and a new tire put on.

If everybody in the country could hear Dr. Barker talk and then would act on what he says the criminal courts of the country wouldn't be so choked up.

My boy says that his brother John should ought to run for the city council on a platform of bigger nursing bottles and faster feeding rubber nipples.

They is a lot of shicks who like Torrance better now that they is a subdivision in Torrance named the Hollywood Riviera. Carl Burmaster says he guesses he will stay here now.

Art Finster says with that tract named like that he expects a bull market on staycomb.

And pretty soon we may be publishing pictures of gals wearing new fangled ornaments on their garters.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE
 Persons troubled with ruptures are invited to see Mr. Coates at the Colonial hotel, Torrance, Thursday, Friday and Saturday this week, March 1, 2 and 3.

Mr. Coates is demonstrating a new type of truss which is manufactured in Los Angeles and which is said to be entirely different from the ordinary rupture support, in that it minimizes the opening in the stomach lining rather than enlarging it as in the case with most rupture trusses.

MR. AND MRS. THORPE ARE HOSTS AT PARTY
 Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thorpe entertained at a dancing party at Redondo Beach, Saturday evening. After the dance the following guests enjoyed a buffet supper at the Thorpe home at 1546 Oak street, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kent, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dunean, Southgate; Mr. and Mrs. D. V. May, Inglewood; Mr. and Mrs. J. Hillison, Walnut Park, and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Arfman of Lomita.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER
 Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Yettra, 2117 Redondo Boulevard, entertained at dinner and bridge, Sunday. Places were indicated for Mr. and Mrs. H. Yettra, Mr. and Mrs. D. Yettra, Francis and Maurice Yettra, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hagkita of Venice, and the host and hostess. Favors were of amber and yellow.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON AT CLUBHOUSE
 More than the ordinary preparations are being made for the bridge luncheon to be given by the Women's Club March committee, at the clubhouse on Friday March 19. Luncheon will be served at 12:30, with favors and decorations in the St. Patrick motif, and play will start promptly afterward.

Many Here Will Visit Saratoga Now with Fleet
 The Saratoga, giant aircraft carrier, with her brood of planes has joined the fleet at anchor in San Pedro harbor. Many local persons have visited the great new ship and many more have announced their intention of doing so. Persons wishing to inspect this interesting craft may take a Motor Coach Company bus either to San Pedro or Long Beach, whence they may be transported to the Saratoga in water taxis. The ship is open for inspection Saturday and Sunday afternoons.
 The Lexington, sister ship of the Saratoga, will arrive at the harbor next month. Both of these great ships will be here until April 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Keyes of Redondo boulevard were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keyes, senior, of Hynes, and on Sunday visited Mr. and Mrs. William Spittstoesser of Van Nuys.

The W. A. McDonald home was released from quarantine this week greatly to the relief of the inmates.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lawler of Chestnut street were entertained at dinner Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Gallardo of Pennsylvania avenue.

New Drama at Hollywood Is Marked Success
 "Interference," which opened Monday night at the Hollywood Play House, has most of the requisites for lasting success. Its inception in Hollywood is not entirely in the nature of a surprise. New York has placed its stamp of approval on it, in fact, it is still current there. The play came to New York from an entire year in London.
 "Interference" is a heavy play, yet it is brightened by some clever lines and one or two amusing comedy characters.
 It has been a long time since we have heard such a collection of good English accents.
 Altogether it's a play you shouldn't miss seeing, and speaks well for Jack Winslow the new manager of the Hollywood Play House.

Mrs. Margaret McCartney, Royal Matron of Lomita Court of the Amaranth will attend Grand Court in San Francisco next week, as delegate from the local court. Clinton O. Brown, royal patron will also attend the sessions in San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. Brown.
 Mrs. McCartney will assist at the institution of a court at Inglewood Saturday evening when matrons and patrons will constitute part of this suite of grand officers.
 Lomita Court of the Amaranth will share in the proceeds at the Lomita theatre, Friday night, when Laura La Plante in "Silk Stockings" will be shown.
 Mrs. Ben Paddock continues critically ill at her home in Inglewood, and will be confined to her bed for two months, at least, according to attending physicians.
